Till Ready

Moderato

I'm never the one to boast about the aristocrats I know.

Lord goes down to open a Church Bazaar.

They greet him in regal state as if he was some one great!

If ever I meet a "Cham" with the fellow that ruled Siam!

In fact, I should be disposed to say, when he was as old as me.

He used to drink quarts of E7 Eb7

When ever a noble patron, they say, was Ab Cm Ab Ab° Eb Ab

E7 Eb7

L.H.

E b Ab

E b 7

L.H.

B b7 E b7 Ab
Lord of Earl, I pass serenly by, it isn’t because I’m vain or proud.

Duke of York, his friendship was sublime, I’ll tell you the reason why.

“Shook refrain from washing it for a year!” I’ve never o’pen’d

Morn­ing yes and left there at clos­ing time! I like to do what

Oxford, I’ve been a­im­ing at higher things, And I was Chur­ch Ba­zaars, It’s awfully “in­fra dig.” But I’m Fa­ther did, when­ever the Duke’s a­bout.

Now a­mongst my friends, I num­ber Prin­ces, and Dukes, and Kings!

Near­ly al­ways pre­s­ent when they’re clos­ing the “Old Blue Pig!”

There just af­ter day­break and they’ve on­ly just thrown me out!

3
CHORUS

I know the Prince of Monaco:

Ab Cm B♭o B♭m Eb Eb7

friend of mine.

I've had cigars and ginger ales With the Duke of Baden-Baden, and the

F7 F11 B♭m7 B♭7

Prince of Wales.

I know the
Emperor of Japan.

I've met the King of Spain, I do declare!

In fact, I know every Public House

From Marble Arch to Leicester Square.

[Verse 1]

Emperor of Japan.

I've met the King of Spain, I do declare!

In fact, I know every Public House

From Marble Arch to Leicester Square.

[Verse 2]

Emperor of Japan.

I've met the King of Spain, I do declare!

In fact, I know every Public House

From Marble Arch to Leicester Square.

[Repeat]