I'll Be Your Sweetheart

Words and Music by HARRY DACRE

I saw two lovers in a garden
A little lad and lass with golden blue bells were accepted by the maiden
She said "I'll keep them safely all my years
I saw them again. They stood before the altar
But then suppose you meet some other lady
A handsome pair I never shall forget them
They looked as sweet as honey in a beehive
And

F Gm7 C7 Gm C7

(A Bass) (Ab Bass)

© 1999 Frank Dean & Co., Ltd.
Revised Edition © 1944 S. Feldman & Co., Ltd.
so I stood and watched the youthful pair
I should never be your darling wife
The lad all blushing gave the maid a happiest young couple in the land And once again he took the loving kiss

kiss
Then tenderly he whispered this Then once again he whispered this Then passionately whispered this

I'll be your sweetheart if you will be mine

All my I'll be your valentine.

Bluebells I've gathered keep them and be true

When I'm a man my plan will be to marry you.