I'm Henry the Eighth

Written and Composed by MURRAY and WESTON

1. You don't know who you're looking at, now have a look at me!
   I'm a bit of a nob, I am—belong to royalty.
   I'll tell you how it came about; I married Widow Burch,
   And I was King of England when I toddled out of church.

2. I left the Duke of Cumberland; a pub up in the town,
   Soon with one or two moochers I was holding up the 'Crown.'
   I was sitting among the kings. I made a lovely show.
   Out-came the people started ed.

3. Now at the Wax-work Exhibition not so long ago,
   I was sitting among the kings. I made a lovely show.
   Having been among them, I made a lovely show.
   Out came the potman saying,

4. The undertaker called and to the wife I heard him say,
   "Have you got any orders, mum? We're rather slack today!"
   While people poked my packed up all your other seven for the golden gates.
   He said, "It's Charlie Peace!" and

shouting; "Hip-hooray!" — Said I, "Get down up—on your knees, it's Coronation Day!"
"Go on home to bed!" — Said I, "Now, say another word, and off—I'll go your head!"
then I got the spike; I shouted "Shower ignorance!" as waxy as you like—half a yard of string, I dropped up on my marrow bones and sang "God save the King!"

"I'm Henry the Eighth, I am! — Henry the Eighth I am! I am! I got married to the widow next door, She's been married seven times before. Every one was a Henry, She wouldn't have a Willie or a Sam. I'm her Eighth old man named Henry, I'm Henry the Eighth, I am!"
