VERSES

1. Some people declare that a quiet country lane is the very best place for a "spoon;"

2. We climb on the car where the journey begins, and we make for the first vacant seat.

3. We get to the end of the journey all right; or at least to the end of the track.

An old rustic stile must be there, they'll explain, and so while all the others prepare to a light, we re-

Go go for a ride on the car

For we know how

Cosy the tops of the tram cars are.
The seats are so small, and there's not much to pay. You sit close together and "spoon" all the way. There's many a Miss will be Miss some day Thro' riding on top of the car. Then we car.
