Till ready

If you feel an inclination...... To go to

When you see the girl who dances...... In tricky

Paris to improve your education, Take adman-ner that peculiar to France is, You'll pervice from one who knows what's what. You can't learn much there haps get quite excited at The vast display of ow-a-days. If to see things you've decided... It would be underwear. But altho' you get your eye full... Of fal-the-better if you did the same as I did— Take a trip, go to Spain. When you riddles, after all it's but a trifle— And to call that a dance, Why, it come back again, You'll perhaps know what I mean.

ain't got a chance With the way girls dance in Spain.
CHORUS

Tiddley-om-pom! tiddley-om-pom! Tiddley-om-pom-pom-pom!

pay! 1. Oh! the folks they do go on so In the land of King Alfonso, They're a somewhat off your "barcelo-\na! The contortions—they are rum lot cautions! 2. Oh! the dainty dancing donah Sends you well, the best thing I can say, Is pom tiddley-om-pom-3.
When a Spaniard starts love-making,
He sets about it in a way there's no mistaking.
And so far as my experience goes,
The girls are somewhat similar.
It's a game they spend some time at—
Well, I suppose it all depends upon the climate;
And it seems pretty clear
That it's played over here
In a way that's much too slow.

CHORUS
Tiddley-om-pom! tiddley-om-pom! tiddley-om-pom-pom-pay!
But the Spaniard, when he's "spoony,"
He goes absolutely "looney."
Oh, it's frightful! (but delightful) and the Spanish ladies say,
It's pom-tiddley-om-pom-pom-pom-pay! tiddley-om-pom-pom-pay!

Ev'ry Spaniard loves bull-fighting,
And I was told that it was awfully exciting;
But I saw a bull fight once, and I
Was disappointed terribly.
People said the show would knock me,
But it would take a little more than that to shock me!
For as most ladies do,
I've attended a few
Of the drapers' sales at home.

CHORUS
Tiddley-om-pom! tiddley-om-pom! tiddley-om-pom-pom-pay!
No politeness — no "beg pardons!"
In the fight to save three "fardens."
Oh, the wrangling, and the mangling! and the language by the way,
Is pom-tiddley-om-pom-pom-pom-pay! tiddley-om-pom-pom-pay!
